

Northeast Harbor Library
NORTHEAST HARBOR MAINE
04662

Rudyard Kipling's American wife,
Carrie, was the sister of Dr.
Theodore Jenham's wife. Dr. and Mrs. Jenham summered in their Northeast Harbor cottage
"Lilac Lodge," which still stands above Manchester Road overlooking Somes Sound.

Mr. and Mrs. Kipling joined the Northeast Harbor Library during their time here, and it was then that he presented the library with this hand bill bearing his poem
"elf."

Robert R. Pyle
April, 1990