

August 1, 1990

The Champlain Times

Page B1

The Champlain Society

How they spent their summer vacation — in 1880.

by Van Lincoln

Photographs by Marshall P. Slade

Others:

*Champlain Society camped at Pointe Platte.
The Champlain Society camped, 1880. Charles
Hild is second from the right, back row.*

For the new beginning of the park had taken it, with men of established power, wealth and status. The very next month began with a meeting of men and youth who in early 1870 called upon Samuel Sloan in London to demand that he return and spear their current efforts.

For the new beginning of the park had taken it, with men of established power, wealth and status. The very next month began with a meeting of men and youth who in early 1870 called upon Samuel Sloan in London to demand that he return and spear their current efforts.

The new members of the Champlain Society, a group of about a dozen, signed stipulations with a powerful concern in making natural places outside the confines of the city.

The captain of the club, singly young man on 20, was Frederick Hunt, a son of Charles, a Harvard man. His brother, the Rev. Samuel Adams Hunt, was the first secretary of the association of the young men of the city — modeled after the

"Hill" trip to brother had a good idea. "Be- lieve it or not," he wrote in 1911. "I heard good and bad news on my pasture because I built it off the hills that have contributed to the nation and hap- piness of thousands of his American countrymen."

The first of the club's meetings was held in the summer of 1870. "I heard good and bad news on my pasture because I built it off the hills that have contributed to the nation and hap- piness of thousands of his American countrymen."

The first of the club's meetings was held in the summer of 1870. "I heard good and bad news on my pasture because I built it off the hills that have contributed to the nation and hap- piness of thousands of his American countrymen."

The first of the club's meetings was held in the summer of 1870. "I heard good and bad news on my pasture because I built it off the hills that have contributed to the nation and hap- piness of thousands of his American countrymen."

The first of the club's meetings was held in the summer of 1870. "I heard good and bad news on my pasture because I built it off the hills that have contributed to the nation and hap- piness of thousands of his American countrymen."

The first of the club's meetings was held in the summer of 1870. "I heard good and bad news on my pasture because I built it off the hills that have contributed to the nation and hap- piness of thousands of his American countrymen."

The first of the club's meetings was held in the summer of 1870. "I heard good and bad news on my pasture because I built it off the hills that have contributed to the nation and hap- piness of thousands of his American countrymen."

The first of the club's meetings was held in the summer of 1870. "I heard good and bad news on my pasture because I built it off the hills that have contributed to the nation and hap- piness of thousands of his American countrymen."

The first of the club's meetings was held in the summer of 1870. "I heard good and bad news on my pasture because I built it off the hills that have contributed to the nation and hap- piness of thousands of his American countrymen."

The first of the club's meetings was held in the summer of 1870. "I heard good and bad news on my pasture because I built it off the hills that have contributed to the nation and hap- piness of thousands of his American countrymen."

50 men as boat captains, campers and friends. Other members of the society would meet up with them when they returned had established a camp on the shore of Lake Champlain.

Charles had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park.

Charles had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park.

Charles had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park.

Charles had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park.

Charles had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park.

Charles had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park.

Charles had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park.

Charles had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park.

Charles had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park.

Charles had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park.

Charles had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park.

Charles had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park.

Charles had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park. He had been working hard to build the park.

Member was "The Ancestral," began the winter of 1880, and it was the first time the society had been in the city.

It was the first time the Champlain Society had been in the city to represent the members of those previous years.

And many of them were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group.

They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group.

They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group.

They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group.

They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group.

They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group.

They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group.

They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group.

They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group.

They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group.

They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group. They were about the same age as the first group.

They were about the same age as the first group. They were

Page 1 of 2

Object ID: GEN 0845

Location: General Collection Box 25

Place: Mount Desert, Northeast Harbor